Thru the years stands our fra - ter - ni - ty (for - ty) men now call it home.
 You have aid - ed and in - struct - ed all those men who hold you dear;
 Time e - ter - nal, has trans - formed us; Still thy teach - ings hold us fast;

Friend-ship, broth-er-hood, here sur-round us, Strong the tie that binds us now.
 Teach-ing, broth-er-hood, bind-ing friend-ships, mold-ing men for life a head;
 Thru life's trou-bles, joys and sor-rows, Light from them we have re-ceived,

Chapt-er life is all a-round us; Broth-er-hood our sol-emn vow.
 Light and truth to us you've giv-en, But our mem-o-ries a slend-er thread.
 Hail, A-ca-cia! Our fra-ter-ni-ty! May thy glo-ries nev-er die.
